RESOURCES: CONSULTANTS AND WEBSITE

Nearly half of all adults in their 40s and 50s are providing care to an older adult while raising a young child or grandchild or supporting a grown one. These responsibilities have a cost, both financially and emotionally, felt by the caregiver caught in the middle. Your NYS-Balance program can provide you with tools and resources to help manage the stress of being part of the new sandwich generation.

Call or visit us online to get started.

Additional resources are available through your NYS Employee Assistance Program (EAP). For more information about EAP and other Work-Life Services benefits, please visit www.worklife.ny.gov.
